

Design Economics

Assignment 1: 'Bull Durham' Bio

J M E

A BRIEF HISTORY

I was born in June at Mount Sinai Hospital in Toronto.
When my mother saw me for the first time she thought I looked like E.T.

I have lived in Toronto, in the same house, for my entire life.
I am now 22 years old.

I have one brother and a dog named Cocoa
I can't honestly say I get along very well with either of them.

My father was born in Italy and moved to Canada with his family as a small child.
My Italian background and family has always been very important to me.

I was a very shy child and in an attempt to 'bring me out of my shell' my parents enrolled me in every after school program imaginable.
Acting class was the worst of all.

I was in the French Immersion program from elementary to high school.
I was always involved in school activities during high school: I played rugby, ran cross-country, swam, rowed and was on student council.

SWIMMING USED TO BE MY LIFE

I discovered my love of swimming at the age of six.
I swam competitively, 10 times a week, for 13 years.
My goal in swimming was to make it to the National level.
I quit swimming two weeks after I made it and sometimes I wonder if it was a mistake.

PRESENT DAY JME

During the school year I live in the Glebe.
I had always planned to study medicine after high school but in a moment of panic I applied to the Architecture program and was accepted.
I am quite sure that Architecture wasn't a mistake.

I have two passions: swimming and traveling.

I love movies.

I like to run.

I like to learn new languages – so far I am fluent in two and a beginner in three.

I enjoy cooking.

I always choose salty foods over sweet.

I dislike chocolate -- except white chocolate, which I've been told isn't really chocolate.

My strengths include:

Determination

Organization

Motivation

My weaknesses include:

I am easily stressed out

At times I lack confidence