

Summary Résumé of Dr. Bruce Murray Firestone, B. Eng. (Civil), M.Eng.-Sci., Ph.D.

Positions: Founder, Ottawa Senators Hockey Club and the Corel Centre; Adjunct Research Professor, School of Architecture, Faculty of Engineering and Design, Lecturer, Eric Sprott School of Business, Carleton University, Ottawa; Chair, M.H. Milford Holdings Inc., Blue Heron Storage Corporation, Manchester Development Corporation; Executive Director, Explorim.org, Professional Entrepreneurs and Intrapreneurs Organization; Organizational Coach, DramatisPersonae.org.

Academic Background: Ph.D. in Urban Economics from the Urban Research Unit of the Australian National University, Canberra, 1982. Master of Engineering-Science (Traffic and Transportation), University of New South Wales, Sydney, 1976. Bachelor of Civil Engineering, McGill University, Montreal, 1972. Also attended: Harvard University (Finance), University of Western Ontario (Economics) and Laval University, Quebec City (French). High School, Ashbury College, Ottawa: graduated 1967, age 15.

Charities Supported: CHEO Foundation, Christie Lake Kids, Minor Hockey, Muscular Dystrophy, Ottawa Senators Foundation, National Capital Alpine Ski Team, Ottawa Rotary Club, Queensway Carleton Hospital.

info@dramatispersonae.org