

TEAM BIOGRAPHIES

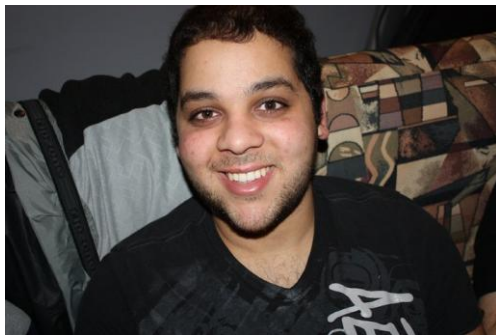

Allison Chen is a fourth year finance student at the University of Ottawa, Telfer School of Management. She hopes to start a career in the financial industry upon graduation and intends to one day obtain her Chartered Financial Analyst designation. There is a strong entrepreneurial culture in her family and Address It is one of her many business ideas. She also helps to run a national non-profit organization called the Canadian Youth Assembly.

Tyler Sommers graduated with a specialist degree in political science from the University of Toronto. He currently works as an account manager at an IT/IM staffing agency, Ant & Bee Corporation, in Ottawa. In addition, he is a researcher for the University of Toronto and most recently for Carleton University, and hopes to complete his Masters in Public Policy degree at Carleton University and start a promising career in the public sector. He is the founder of the Canadian Youth Assembly.

Alan Auyeung is a fourth year marketing/finance student, attending the University of Ottawa, Telfer School of Management. He is an active student who shows great dedication and talent in the field of marketing. As a student, he strives for a level of continuous dedication in learning. He is a very outgoing person and is always looking for a challenge. He was the Elevator Pitch Chair for the Entrepreneurs' Club.

Andrew Sarofeim is a fourth year accounting student who currently studies at the University of Ottawa, Telfer School of Management. He intends to work in accounting upon graduation and one day obtain his Certified General Accountant designation.